

Grammar Focus Page 119

2 Your partner then reports back. How many facts can your partner remember correctly? A: You said you could snowboard. B: Yes, that's right.

2 A: You said you liked polittes. B: You said you like polittes.

B: No, I said I didn't like polittes.

- I am/am not tired
- I can/can't snowboard
- I like/don't like politics
- I've been/haven't been to London
- I'm going out/not going out tonight
- I watched/didn't watch TV last night

1 My teacher said / told me I wasn't concentrating.
2 He said / told I looked tired.
3 I said / told him that I hadn't slept very well.
4 I said / told I had watched a really scary film.
5 I said / told him that was why I hadn't done my homework.
6 He said / told I'd used that excuse before!
In your notebook, rewrite the sentences in Exercise 5 in Direct Speech.
1 You aren't concentrating.
In pairs, complete the task.
1 Tell your partner five true facts about yourself. Use some facts from the box or your own.

5 Which option is correct?

6 His lies have cost the German police over £20,000.

5 He is going back home very soon.

4 We now know that Ray's real name is Robin van Helsum.

3 His school friends in Holland saw the photo and contacted us.

2 We put a photo of him in newspapers around Europe.

They said they had looked everywhere for information about Ray.

1 We looked everywhere for information about Ray.

Six months later, the Berlin police reported about Ray. In your notebook, rewrite their statements in Reported Speech. Begin your sentences with They said

The told the police [that] his first name was Ray.

The said his father had died two weeks ago.

REMEMBER THIS

Direct Speech	Reported Speech	Past Simple	Present Simple	Past Continuous	Present Continuous	Past Perfect	Present Perfect	Past Simple	She worked , they said.
I work,	She said she worked.	She said she worked.	He's working,	They said he was working.	He was working.	She said she had worked.	He had worked.	We've worked,	They said he had worked.
1, work,	She said she worked.	She said she worked.	He's working,	They said he was working.	He was working.	She said she had worked.	He had worked.	We've worked,	They said he had worked.
1, worked,	She said she worked.	She said she worked.	He's worked,	They said he was working.	He was working.	She said she had worked.	He had worked.	We've worked,	They said he had worked.
1, works,	She said she worked.	She said she worked.	He's working,	They said he was working.	He was working.	She said she had worked.	He had worked.	We've worked,	They said he had worked.

In Reported Speech verb forms and pronouns change depending on

GRAMMAR FOCUS

3 Read the GRAMMAR FOCUS. Which verb forms complete the examples correctly?

- 1 My first name is Ray and I'm probably seventeen.
- 2 My father died two weeks ago.
- 3 I've lived in the forest for about five years.
- 4 I can't remember anything.
- 5 Berlin Youth Services are looking after him.

Compare the Direct Speech 1-5 below with the Reported Speech in blue in the text. What changes are there to the verb

He said his father had died two weeks ago and he had buried him in the forest. He also told them that he had lived in the forest for about five years but he couldn't remember anything about his life before that. The police told reporters that Beijing Youth Services were looking after him until they could find out his identity.

Mystery Girl Forest Boy

- yesterday?
- five years ago?
- before that?
- two weeks ago?

- before that?
- two weeks ago?
- five years ago?
- yesterday?

• What happened yesterday?

www.susansbooks.com

Read this true story

• 100 •

I can report what other people have said

can report what other people have said

C. C. Gridmair